

Graduate Position - Ture Whānau / Family Law North Shore, Auckland

Want a good work-life balance?

Want to feel like you are making a difference in people's lives?

A fulltime Graduate position has opened up in our modern family practice www.schumacherlaw.co.nz for a driven, enthusiastic and positive lawyer:

Ko wai mātou | Who you will work with

Our firm was established in 2014. We specialise in Family Law and have built an excellent reputation within our industry. We focus on what we enjoy doing - and we do it well.

Ō Mahi | What You Will Do

Your role will include:

- Running your own files from onboarding to conclusion (with mentoring)
- Dealing with legal issues like children's care arrangements, family harm applications, guardianship disputes, paternity and Oranga Tamariki proceedings
- Representing our clients in Court (both through legal aid and through private clients)
- Participating in mediations/round table meetings/Judicial Settlement Conferences
- Providing an excellent level of customer service and legal advice

Ngā Painga o Schumacher Law | Why Schumacher Law

Your benefits will include:

- Your own office
- Your own car park
- Walking distance to the North Shore Court
- A positive, supportive and encouraging work environment
- Being part of a small, cohesive and enthusiastic team of family lawyers

Pēhea te tono mai | How You Apply

To apply you will need:

- To have already been admitted to the NZ bar, or you are about to be admitted to the NZ bar in a matter of weeks, as you will start practising immediately (under supervision)
- Ideally to have completed both Family Law papers during your LLB
- An ability to build and maintain colleague/client relationships
- Excellent communication skills and a passion to help others
- An eye for detail and an ability to empathise

If this sounds like you, please send a covering letter, your academic transcript and CV to Natalie at: natalie@schumacherlaw.co.nz.

Applications close at midday on Monday 12 October 2026.